DAILY TRIBUNE.

SATURDAY...MAY 10.

The Presidency—Col. Fremont.

We have published Col. Fremont's admirable letter to Gov. Robinson. Below we give an extract from the Cleveland Herald, written from Washington by James A. Briggs, Esq., an old and influential Free Soiler of Cleveland. He says, May 2d:

I have taken much care in my inquiry about the position of Col. Fremont on the Great Question at issue between Freedom and Slavery, and I am satisfied, from information received from gentlemen in whom the Republican party throughout the country repose the most implicit confidence, that Col. Fremont is as true and reliable on Freedom in Kansas as any man that lives. There is no doubt of this, and the country will soon know it.

Col. Fremont is a native of South Carolina, and is descended from the Puritans of France—the Huguenots—from men who were consecrated to Liberty and the rights of conscience in the Baptism of fire and blood. He was born in 1813, and was graduated at Charleston College. His family was very poor. He struggled against poverty, and alone and without friends, asked and obtained employment of the General Government in the Exploring Expedition to the Rocky Mountains and the Pacific coast. He is a man of indomitable energy, of iron will, of true heroism and character—and frank and candid in the expression of his opinions on all questions of public policy. He was for Freedom in California, and gave his influence to make that great State free. For this he was defeated by the slave propagandists, in a re-election to the Senate.

Col. Fremont is a member and a communicant of the Protestant Episcopal Church—is a man of great simplicity and purity of life—beloved and respected in all circles where he is known—has a thorough knowledge of men, and is well versed in all our governmental affairs. He is a Pacific Railroad man, and an ardent advocate of River and Harbor Improvements. In all his feelings and sympathies he is a Western man, and is desirous of seeing the prairies of the Far West and the coast of the Pacific dotted all over with homes for the farmer—the school house and the church.

During all his explorations among the mountains, amid snows and ice, and cold and storms, he never drank anything but cold water. And here let me say that Col. Fremont has what so many of our public men lack—faith in God and strictly temperate habits.

I believe the poor boy of the "Palmetto State," the "Path Finder of the Rocky Mountains," will preside as Chief Magistrate over the destinies of an Empire which God once entrusted to the care of the "Widow's Son."

Brilliant Whitewash.

Many have heard of the brilliant stucco whitewash on the east end of the President's house at Washington. The following is a receipt for making it, as gleaned from the National Intelligencer, with some additional improvements learned by experiment:

Take half a bushel of nice unslacked lime; slake it with boiling water, cover it during the process to keep in the steam, and add to it a peck of clean salt, previously well dissolved in warm water; three pounds of ground rice, boiled to a thin paste, and stirred in boiling hot; half a pound of clean glue, which has been previously dissolved by first soaking it well, and then hanging it over a slow fire, in a small kettle within a large one filled with water. Add five gallons of hot water to the whole mixture; stir it well, and let it stand a few days covered from the dirt. It should be put on right hot; for this purpose, it can be kept in a kettle on a portable furnace. It is said that about one pint of this mixture will cover a square yard upon the outside of a house, if properly applied.

Brushes more or less small may be used, according to the neatness of the job required. It answers as well as oil paint for wood, brick or stone, and is cheaper. It retains its brilliancy for many years. There is nothing of the kind that will compare with it, either for inside or outside walls. Coloring matter may be put in, and made of any shade you like.

Spanish-brown stirred in will make red or pink more or less deep according to the quantity. A delicate tinge of this is very pretty for inside walls. Finely pulverized common clay, well mixed with Spanish-brown, before it is stirred into the mixture, makes a lilac color. Lamp-black in moderate quantities makes a slate color, very suitable for the outside of buildings. Lamp-black and Spanish-brown mixed together produce a reddish stone color. Yellow ochre stirred in makes yellow wash; but chrome goes farther, and makes a color generally esteemed prettier. In all these cases, the darkness of the shade will of course be determined by the quantity of coloring used. It is difficult to make a rule, because tastes are very different; it would be best to try experiments on a shingle, and let it dry. We have [illegible] lime. The lime destroys the color, and the color has an effect on the whitewash, which makes it crack and peal.

When walls have been badly smoked, and when you wish to have them a clean white, it is well to squeeze indigo plentifully through a bag into the water you use, before it is stirred in the whole mixture.

If a larger quantity than five gallons is wanted, the same proportions should be observed.

Chicago in 1856.

No city in the world, perhaps, has ever grown so rapidly, or taken such gigantic strides towards controlling or commanding the trade and commerce of a nation as Chicago. Five or six years ago she numbered but a few thousand souls, inhabiting for the most part, shanties and inferior houses, doing business in the same class of tenements, and possessing very limited means of intercommunication with the surrounding world—having at that time only about sixty miles of railroad, and consequently their trade was confined for the most part to the country lying east and north of her, which could be, as it was, carried on through the lakes, by a few steamers and sail vessels. Now, through the energy and perseverance of her citizens, together with the co-operation of the hardy pioneers west of her, she counts her miles of railroads by thousands, and her water craft by hundreds—is acknowledged by her compeers the greatest lumber market in this country, and defies the world to produce her equal in the grain trade.

Occupying the position that Chicago does, with her long lines—which are destined to become still longer—of railroads stretching over the broad, rich prairies of her own state, and those west and north of her, grasping hold of regions of untold and, at present, unknown [illegible] predict, with any degree of certainty, the future [illegible] city of the prairies.

Strangers coming [illegible] come by thousands—look with wonder and admiration, many of them having supposed that Chicago was nothing more than a large country town, called a city "for the name of the thing." But how disappointed when they stand gazing upon the immense depots in which the cars land them; and when they have sufficiently recovered from their reveries and bewilderment, they venture into the streets, which have a resemblance to those they have heretofore been perfectly familiar with, and New York with her Broadway and her avenues—Boston, with her State, Kilby, Water and other streets present themselves to their minds; they stand upon the lake shore—there, too is a slight resemblance to the beautiful New York Bay, and the east or north river filled with shipping. With these and the splendid buildings, both public and private, surrounding them, they can scarcely realize that they are in a city a thousand miles or more west of the great cities about which they formerly located, and standing upon soil which but a few years ago was occupied by the red man, and the ferocious beasts of the forest and the plain; and when told that they are in a city containing nearly 100,000 inhabitants, they look confounded, but must believe; for there is the city and the busy populace before their own eyes.

Very great improvements are constantly going on in this young city—the grading and paving of streets, draining the city, &c. Some four thousand buildings, we are told, are to be erected there this season. Dwellings and stores are both in great demand, and are rented as fast as they are built, at rates which appear to us almost ruinous to the tenant; yet some how or other people do pay them, and appear to be getting rich notwithstanding the heavy expenses attending a residence there.

Judging from the past history of Chicago, her present prosperity and greatness as a commercial mart, all must conclude that her future will be most glorious—beyond comprehension.—Beaver Dam Sentinel.

Scene on Boston Common in the Olden Time.—In 1749, some good people in or near Boston, organized a society for "the promotion of industry and economy," the wars preceding that period having introduced a habit of idleness among the people, which the strong religious sentiment of the early settlers determined to discourage and rebuke. On the occasion of their anniversary in 1753, three hundred females of Boston, assembled on the Common, with their spinning wheels, and gave a demonstration of their skill in the art of using them. They were neatly attired in cloth of their own manufacture, and a great crowd of spectators collected to witness the scene. This was the first public exhibition of American manufactures, and probably produced as much good and more excitement than those of later days.—C. Knight's "Knowledge is Power."

Sleep and System.—The Rev. George Gilfillan, one of the most laborious and productive writers of the day, has recently published "The History of a Man," in which he reveals the secret of his powers of endurance—and his statement is interesting testimony to the value of "sleep and system."

"I am often asked," (he says) "with real or affected wonder, how I can get through so much work of various kinds. My answer is—sleep and system. I sleep eight or nine hours out of the twenty-four, and I never write after dinner or supper. I never have, at any time, written more than five hours a day, and I read at meals and odd moments. At Edinburg I hurt myself, as I said, by sitting up late to study; and when I obtained a settled position, I said, 'I shall throw down my pen every night at nine;' and, with the exception of three or several times in nineteen years, I have kept the resolution."—N. Y. Post.

The Fruit—The Crops—The Season.

The melancholy fact that we of the West will have no peaches this year, and that vast numbers of the peach trees were killed by the dreadfully cold weather which distinguished last winter, is quite generally understood. But singular as it may seem, we learn that in New England there will be about half a crop of peaches, and in New Jersey a whole crop. For the phenomenon of the preservation of peaches in New England, horticulturists are unable to account. There will be a few cherries in this region, and apples promise to be unusually abundant. The orchards are in flower now, and are refreshingly beautiful and fragrant.

The season is so backward that the faint-hearted among the farmers are disconsolate. There was an immense quantity of wheat sown last fall, and this grain was perfectly protected from the intense cold by the deep snow, while the cold and dry spring has not interfered with its vitality. The wheat is, therefore, splendid, and promises unusual recompense to its raisers. But the grass is behind the times. The pastures, instead of being richly stored with bright grasses wherein sleek cattle might feed to fullness, are rather inclined to be dusty, and the cattle have an unhealthy and dissatisfied look. A great deal of corn has been planted, but there is still very much to do in that line, and the ground which has not been plowed now breaks up in heavy, hard clods. The spring grains have not had a chance yet, no rain having fallen to sprout the seed, and the country gardens show little sign of cultivation further than the digging up of the soil. The foliage on the trees is very thin and delicate for the season, and the sunshine falling through the tender array of little leaves, gives an ethereal and enchanting glow to the stripe of woodlands that skirt the horizon. The few showers which we have enjoyed within a few days have not been extensive.—Cin. Com. 6th.

Wonderful Instance of Sagacity.—We hear of an instance of sagacity practiced by the elephant attached to Herr Driesbach's Menagerie, which deserves record. Coming into Newark, Ohio, last Saturday, the elephant's keeper fell in a fit from his horse. The whole menagerie immediately came to a halt, and some members of the company went forward to pick up the man. But the elephant would not allow any person to approach the senseless form of his keeper. Taking him up with his trunk, softly, he would place him on his horse, but finding that the man was senseless, he laid him on the ground, and kept watch over him.—Many members of the menagerie tried to soothe the faithful elephant; who had now become furious at the supposed death of his master, but to no purpose, and there the man lay watched by the sagacious animal. After lying in this condition for some time, a physician, who had been sent for, arrived, and yet the elephant would allow no one to approach. At length the keeper became so far conscious as to command the elephant to let the physician come near, and the animal was docile and obedient in a moment, and the keeper was properly cared for—the elephant, all the while, expressing the utmost anxiety for the sick man.

What else was this but the exercise of a human intelligence, in which pity and affection and reason were all undoubtedly blended? We can almost believe that that animal, at least, has something of a soul, if 'tis Reason which marks the presence of the immortal spark.—Sandusky Register.

"Old" Dean Robbed.—On Wednesday evening last, Edwin Dean, father of Mrs. Mayne, had his pocket picked while coming off the Transit at Detroit. His pocket book was taken, containing $150 in money and a draft for $500.—Mr. Dean recognized the thief and gave chase, but he at last eluded his pursuers.—[Rochester Union.

This robbery of Dean leads us to some reflection regarding the past. Years ago—say some sixteen or eighteen—this same Dean became debtor to a firm of which we were a member, for honest labor bestowed upon his interests in the way of printing for the Eagle Street Theatre. The amount at that time was large for us to lose—say, between one and two hundred dollars. When men came to pay off their debts in bankruptcy, Mr. Dean fell into the same fashion, and served us with a bankrupt notice—all that we have ever received in liquidation of the amount. [illegible] obligations in this [illegible] Julia before the public.—She evinced a high order of talent, fortune smiled upon her, and she became a favorite with the public. She accumulated money fast, and rumor says that she divided the reward of her labors with him, until he became comparatively wealthy. In his prosperity he appears to have forgotten the honest debts which he paid with a bankrupt notice to his creditors, and as we read the account of his robbery, we could not help thinking that if he had paid to us the $150 in part for the amount of our claim, he would not have been robbed of it.—Buffalo Express.

Disclosures of a Mesmeric Subject.—A San Francisco paper, by the last steamer, says:

Frank Ball, well known in the cities of the northern and eastern States as the principal mesmeric subject of Laroy Sunderland at lectures which he gave in 1846-47-48, has commenced publishing in the Chronicle a series of papers entitled "The Adventures and Revelations of Frank A. Ball, as a Mesmeric Subject."

Sunderland and he made more converts to mesmerism than were made by any other ten persons at that time. He now states that he was never in a mesmeric sleep, but did all the experiments by collusion, and he explains how it was done, and appeals to a number of witnesses to confirm the truth of what he says. He makes affidavit to the truth of his revelations and his first paper is confirmed in many of its most material points by a respectable gentleman now residing in this city.

Has the Earth a Ring?—The venerable Humboldt, from observations recently made respecting the zodiacal light, draws the conclusion that the earth is surrounded with a nebulous ring lying within the orbit of the moon. This startling conclusion is drawn from the fact that the zodiacal light has been seen simultaneously at both east and west horizons. It is rather odd if we have been for ages playing the part of a smaller Saturn among our brother and sister planets, without knowing it.

Singular Accident.—At the upper end of Main street, the sidewalk on the bank of Rock river rests on posts. While a man by the name of Joseph Carter was passing over it yesterday, the strong wind from the west gathered under the walk, and raised about four rods of it, with the man on it, into the air. It was carried about forty feet into the street, in sections about sixteen feet long. Carter was taken from under one of them senseless. There are a number of bruises on his person, the most serious of which are about the head. Dr. Robinson was called, and an examination showed that the skull was not fractured, as was feared at first.—Janesville Free Press.

Rock Island Items.—The Rock Islander says [illegible] about establishing a first-class steam [illegible] Rock Island. It will have an engine of [illegible] and is to be capable of turning out two hundred barrels of flour per day. It is expected that the mill will be in running order by the 1st of September.

We learn from the same paper that Mr. Thompson, late of St. Louis, intends erecting in Rock Island a foundry for casting iron fences, iron fronts and other similar work. He expects to have the foundry in operation in a few weeks.—Davenport Gazette.

Jones Not Dead.

A dispatch from St. Louis dated May 9th, says that a correspondent of the Republican writing from Palermo, Kansas, 5th, declares a messenger just from Franklin, states that Jones is slightly better, though faint hopes are entertained for his recovery.

We wish the death of no man; but at the same time are free to say that we have no tears to shed should Jones be providentially removed. He has earned the fate by which he has been overtaken. Border Ruffianism was the rule by which he lived; why should his death be otherwise than violent and sudden?

Erie on Another Bender.

The Cleveland Leader of Thursday, says that the rail-rippers of Erie had another pow-wow on the 7th, a great indignation meeting at the Court House, where speeches and swearing by the celebrated Lowry, were the order of the evening. He advises a general ripping up of rails, and extermination of the roads which run through the city, and the excitement seems to give serious apprehensions of evil times again for the Lake Shore Roads.

State Institution for the Deaf and Dumb.

Rev. Mr. Cloud, the preacher of forty-parson power, the Principal of the State Institution for the Deaf and Dumb at Jacksonville, whose knowledge of the duties to be performed extended no further than this: "I believe in Douglas and the Nebraska Bill," has resigned, and the Trustees have now appointed, in his place, a boy who does know the Deaf and Dumb Alphabet. This new recipient of official favor is a Mr. Gillette, from Indiana, formerly a employee of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum in that State. We hear that his experience is limited, and that his qualifications do not admit of much being said in their praise. But, whatever he may be, will be useless as long as the present Board remains in power. Until the members of it make room for wiser and better men, the Institution is an useless burden to the State. Why has not Governor Matteson the manliness to sweep away the obstacles to the success of the noble charity, and by re-constructing its administration restore it to the purposes for which it was founded? Who can tell?

Highly Important Omission.

The Native Citizen, of Friday, says:

By an oversight the following was omitted, in the report of the proceedings of State Council published in yesterday's issue.

"The committee of the National Council Platform and Nominations reported in favor of adopting the Platform and endorsing the candidates. Upon a division of the question, the report was unanimously adopted."

That means that the Dark Lantern Party in Illinois have adopted the Squatter Sovereignty dodge, and the principles of the Nebraska Kansas bill; and that all the professions of fidelity to the Anti-Nebraska cause in which the leaders of that squad are wont to indulge, are not worth the paper upon which they are written. The only wonder is that in the report of the proceedings of the State Council, the "oversight" did not extend to the admission of the paragraph altogether.

The Right Spirit.

The Republican Convention for the Cleveland district met last Wednesday to select three delegates to the Philadelphia Convention and [illegible]. That the Republicans of the district have no instructions to give their delegates to the General Convention, except that they are instructed to make choice of that individual for the Presidency, who shall be steadfast in support of freedom, and at the same time combine in his own person the elements of success to the greatest practical extent.

This is the right spirit and comes from a powerful Free Soil community which is capable of giving the Republican nominee 5,000 majority.

"The Americans of Illinois have spoken, and in a voice of thunder declared their unanimity. They have endorsed the nomination of Fillmore and Donelson, without a dissenting voice, and will in the ensuing canvass elect them by an overwhelming majority over all opponents.—Native Citizen.

The writer of the above, knows that Fillmore and Donelson stand not the remotest chance of carrying a single Northern State. He believes, as does every reader of his paper, that Fillmore will not come within 50,000 votes of carrying Illinois.

The primary object he has in view, will be accomplished, if he can induce enough "Americans" to throw away their votes on Fillmore to defeat the Anti-Nebraska candidate, and give the electoral college of this State to the Black Democratic nominee.

Imports.—A recklessness, says the Ohio State Journal, seems to pervade commercial circles just at this time, if we are to judge from the course of the import trade into New York.—The imports for the month of April this year are $20,057,835, against $9,167,465 in '55; on which the duties paid amount to $3,913,885, against $1,930,710 last year. And these imports, it is said, have been made largely under orders sent out most probably under the impression that the war would continue, and that high prices would rule in the produce and goods market. The speculation will prove a bad one, and the effect of these excessive importations is already to be seen in the increased demand for money to meet the payments consequent on this uncalled for expansion. As the export of domestic products is but trifling in its increase, coin must go to make up the deficiency, as that business generally must suffer until things find their natural level.

Uniform Currency.—A few weeks ago a bill was introduced into the United States Senate, to reduce the legal value of Spanish and Mexican quarters, eighths, and sixteenths of a dollar, to twenty, ten, and five cents respectively, and also to provide for the issue of a new cent much smaller than the present one. If this become a law we shall soon see [illegible] now in Spanish and Mexican quarters and "bits" and "pics," or "shillings" and "sixpence," will rapidly disappear. They will all be sent to the mint or be bought up by the silver smiths, and our currency will become uniformly the beautiful national decimal currency.

The Panama Affair.—A letter from a German witness of the riot at Panama, published in the New Yorker Staats Zeitung, gives us another version of the manner in which the outbreak was brought about. It says that "a difficulty arose from the outrageous behavior of several Americans and Irish, who refused to pay for for what they had eaten and drank; and some bragging Americans drew their revolvers and fired upon the inhabitants, consisting mostly of Spaniards, negroes, and Indians. The latter immediately armed themselves," and the result is known. A portion of this statement is new, and, if founded on fact, gives a somewhat different complexion to the affair.

Iroquois Republican.—This is the title of a new and handsome twenty-four column weekly, the publication of which has just been commenced at Middleport, Iroquois county, Ill. Messrs. Jesse Bennett and Frank Bliss are the editors, and Graham & Lindley publishers. The paper is to be Republican in fact as well as name, and its salutatory pledges it to oppose, with might and main, the further extension of Slavery. We wish it every success, and the people of Iroquois should give it a liberal support.

A Levee to be constructed around Shawneetown.—The preliminary steps are being taken, says the Illinoian, for the construction of a levee around Shawneetown. A gentleman of ample means has proffered to build the levee for the sum of $35,000, to be raised by the taxing of the property within its limits. Hitherto the town site has been inundated about twice in every five years, which the levee would prevent. Once built, the Illinoian is of the opinion that that the property of Shawneetown will be secured.

The Buried Men.—At last accounts, up to up to Saturday night, the three men buried at Blue Rock Coal Mine, near Zanesville, had not yet been reached, and hopes grow faint that they can be rescued. A force is at work day and night, at an expense of $100 per day, and contributions were being made to defray the expense.

The Toronto Leader states that 1,000,000 feet of sawed lumber is now passing over the Ottawa & Prescott Railroad, on its way to Chicago. It was purchased at $9 per thousand feet.

Freeport.—The Freeport Journal says that over fifty new buildings are now going up in that city, and that the prospects of the place never were brighter.

Life of Fremont.—Charles W. Upham, of Salem, and Parke Godwin, are both preparing lives of Fremont for the press.

Governor Koerner's Letter.

The able and manly letter of Lieut. Governor Koerner, translated for the Tribune, and in this day's paper, will be widely read. It is one of the keenest and most searching expositions of the aims and purposes of the Slave Power, and of the real construction to be put upon the Nebraska Bill, that, among the multitude of documents of the kind, has ever been given to the public. If the Governor had never manifested his ability and scholarship in any other way, this letter alone would place him in the front rank of the politicians and statesmen of Illinois. It cannot be read by one familiar with the question of which it treats, without the conviction that its writer understands that whereof he speaks, in all its bearings and aspects—all its relations and consequences.

We think it would have been wisdom in the Governor to have left the Temperance question undisturbed. As long, however, as he entertains the opinions expressed, with sincerity, and as they are the opinions of the gentleman to whom the letter was addressed, and the opinions also of nine-tenths of the German people who will read it, those who differ with him upon a matter that is now by common consent put aside, will find no fault with the avowal that the writer makes. He speaks the German sentiment, and that all understand.

Those who think with the Governor, upon this question of Slavery Extension, will regret, that, while exposing the fallacies of the Northern opinions of the scope of the Nebraska Iniquity, he did not make a more thorough exposition of that dogma of Douglasism, that a majority of the people may rightfully do anything—that there are no "natural and inalienable rights" that the governing power may not destroy;—in a word, that he did not riddle and expose the monstrous and despotic assumptions of the "Squatter Sovereignty" school of political tricksters that Slavery has bred. His deep reading in the pure Democracy (not Socialism) of the Continent, and his thorough acquaintance with the masters of political science, both in this country and Europe, who have set forth clearly the natural rights of man—rights that no Government—neither the despotism of a majority or the despotism of a crown—can properly circumscribe or abbreviate—have well fitted him for the task which is reserved for him or another to undertake.—As the Governor has himself most severely suffered from the effect of irresponsible power, his pen ought properly to be sharpened in defence of its opposite, for which the true Democracy of this country contend. His denial of the right of any two men, because they are in majority, to make a third man a slave, would be indignant and powerful, because he has felt the galling weight of the chains which modern Democracy is forging for others. His distinctions between Power and Right would be so well marked and emphatically pronounced that even the blind could see and the deaf could hear, while all would comprehend their cogency and force. Let us hope that at some time not far distant, on the stump or in his library, he may seize an opportunity to say on this point what a due regard for political ethics and the rights of all races, demands.

The advice given by the Governor to his countrymen is such that they may consistently follow. As we understand political movements in Illinois, there is no attempt on foot to organize a new political party. But there is a determination to unite all Anti-Nebraska men for a single object, and for a single campaign. The requirements of the Present overshadow the affiliations of the Past, and contain within themselves, as they may be met, the hopes of the Future. Under a leadership that will afford a guaranty of elevation of purpose, and with a platform that will be conclusive evidence that wrong or injustice is intended to none, a consolidation of [illegible] old Democrats and Republicans may be effected that will have the power, and we know it will have the inclination, to [illegible] the State Government to truly Democratic hands, and to put Illinois—Free Illinois, the child of the Ordinance of 1787—where she belongs, under that banner which Jefferson carried. Such an union the Germans can consent to. For such a purpose they can work. The last obstacle has been rolled out of their path. Know-Nothingism has taken its stand under the shadow of, if not in, the Pro-Slavery camp. The friends of that intolerance which makes birth-place, not merit, the standard of worth and the guage of civic qualification, is this day, in all that remains of it, the avowed co-laborer of that other but more cruelly despotic party which declares that a majority may make a man a chattel—a thing—a brute—because of his color. "Those whom God hath joined, let no man put asunder."

Governor Koerner is also right as to the time for action: Now or never. The Slave Power presses with a weight upon free labor and free men never before felt. It was never so clamorous, never so arrogant, never so dictatorial as now. It has at its command a powerful organization at the North. It has corrupted and debauched political leaders and public sentiment until some men doubt the Democracy upon which our institutions are professedly built. It has proclaimed, through its trusted organs, that condition, not color, is the mark that should distinguish the bond from the free—the chattel from the master. It has seized upon Kansas, once free, with the power and tenacity of a tiger's grip, and a corrupt and imbecile Administration, and a profligate and criminal party are hastening by fraud and violence—by troops of perjured voters and troops of armed men—to complete the work there begun. Kansas is needed for the perpetuation of its long and flagrant misrule, and Kansas it means to have. Her instant admission into the Union with the Constitution which she has presented, will only avert the fate that hangs over her, and that threatens the integrity of Freedom everywhere. A condition precedent to the subsidence of the dangerous agitation which is upon us, is the rescue of the State and Nation from the hands of those who have, at Springfield and at Washington, outraged the people and the Democratic sentiment which lies a the base of the people's action. In this good work—in the admission of Kansas, in the upholding of Freedom as the living and vital principle of the Republic, in the restoring to the country the policy of the Revolutionary Fathers—the Governor calls on his countrymen—now Americans in purpose and opinion—to aid. Will they be frightened by phantoms?

That this letter will be without great weight with the freedom-loving German people of Illinois, even the most deluded and confident of the Pro-Slavery party will not assert. Governor Koerner's position as a lawyer and a judge—his reputation as a thinker and scholar, and his purity as a political leader and private citizen, entitle him to speak. When he speaks, he will be heard, and the louder the Pro-Slavery party howl, the more attentively will his countrymen listen to catch his words.

High Rents and their Remedy.

[For the Chicago Daily Tribune.]

Mr. Editor: Your leader of yesterday on "High Rents and the Remedy," makes important suggestions, and yet does not seem to compass the entire difficulty. As you well say, the prices of houses are regulated by the law of supply and demand, and that the present high prices will be remedied by an increase in the supply of houses. But why does not this supply of houses keep pace with the demand?—Something should be attributed to the difficulty of securing mechanics and to the want of capital. But the great reason why owners of real estate will not build is the fever of speculation which curses the city. While owners are expecting their lots will double in value in a year or two, they look to the increase in value for income. To this cause must be attributed the vast quantities of vacant land in Chicago, even in its central localities, such as does not exist to a similar extent in any other city of the size and also the additional fact that so many small and temporary tenements are built. When real estate ceases to double in one, two or three years, either in actual value or in the imagination of its holders, then they must derive their income of their investment from improvement of their lots. Then will come a competition among landlords instead of the present fierce competition among tenants, and rents will fall. Until that time comes, manufacturing industry will not flourish in Chicago, as it deserves. Without this branch, no inland city of large population can have an enduring and substantial growth. Mechanics are now being kept away by thousands, on account of the enormous rents and the fancy prices of corner lots. Situated in the centre of a magnificent grain region, surrounded by a soil which can produce in abundance all necessaries and all luxuries, it costs more to live in Chicago than in any city of the country except Washington. And one great reason is—which is the concurrent testimony of our merchants and mechanics—that speculation obstructs the channels of legitimate industry.

TENANT.

Unanimous Vote.—The people of Fond du Lac recently voted, with a single exception, in favor of loaning the city credit, to the amount of $50,000, to the Chicago, St. Paul & Fond du Lac Railroad Company.

The best Catch at dice, is not to play.

Letter of Lieutenant Governor Koerner.

[Translated for the Chicago Tribune.]

BELLEVILLE, April 16, 1856.

Editor of the Illinois Beobachter, Peoria:

Sir:—Considering the trouble which you have given yourself "to confute" my views respecting the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, it might be thought a want of respect on my part, should I pass over in silence your public communication of the 9th of this month. And yet, my time is so constantly occupied that I can only enter upon the leading points of your article.

According to your "Argument from Facts," as you are pleased to express it, you have shown beyond "the possibility of contradiction," that the Missouri Compromise possessed but the "semblance of Freedom," while the Nebraska-Kansas Law is, in truth, Freedom itself. And you add, moreover, that the Democratic party have never spoken of this measure but as one of Freedom, and defended it upon that ground. The latter is correct, for, in the first place, the Democratic party, as such, had nothing to do with the Nebraska bill, and is not responsible for it.

The Repeal of the Missouri Compromise is a purely sectional measure—Southern and friendly to Slavery. It was first proposed by a Southern Whig, was supported by the Southern Whigs in mass, and was helped forward by all the Whig organs in the South; and, at this very time, in our own State, is most zealously defended by the most distinguished leaders of the former Whig and Native American party. As to the other, any party which should declare the repeal of a law that had secured the territories of Kansas and Nebraska against the entrance of Slavery, a measure of Freedom, would only expose itself to universal ridicule. Certain individuals, it is true, did, in some of the Free States, in the year 1854, sometime before you, make use of the same arguments which you have again brought forward, in a doubtful attempt to shield themselves against the just indignation of a shamefully betrayed constituency; but they were glad to let them fall again in silence, because the People possessed more intelligence than they had given them credit for, and the South also gave them clearly to understand her contempt for such double dealing hypocrisy.

Your assertion rests upon two "facts," which are these—through the Repeal of the Missouri Compromise, the territories South of the Missouri line—36° 30—are free to constitute themselves Free States; and, further: the country North of that line is so unadapted to Slavery, that its exclusion, through the Missouri Compromise, (Congress Acts, March 6, 1820) was entirely superfluous, and, hence, had but the "semblance of Freedom."

Both "facts" which have served you as the basis of your argument, and through which you have thought to prove beyond the "possibility of contradiction," that I have become entangled in a simply unpractical and superfluous question, and that I and my German fellow-citizens are like to be politically lost, are, in truth, no facts at all, but purely arbitrary assertions destitute of all consistency or foundation. The Missouri Compromise did not, as you seem to assume, sanction Slavery South of that line, but simply did not forbid it, and left it entirely to the future citizens of the Territory to constitute Free States. Your fact were only indeed a fact, if the Compromise Law, after it had forbidden the introduction of Slavery North of that line, had established it South of the same. The Repeal of the Missouri Compromise gives the future settlers in the South not one inch more of right to establish Free States, than they possessed before it passed.

As to your second fact, I may pre-suppose that you know where Kansas lies, and the institution of Slavery, which exists and flourishes in Missouri, and especially in the western part of it bordering on Kansas, can just as easily flourish on the soil of Kansas in precisely the same latitude. Hear what Mr. Geyer, Senator from Missouri, has recently said in the Senate of the United States, in a speech highly commended by the Washington Union, the Missouri Republican, and other Pro-Slavery papers:

> "The attempt on the part of the North to shut the South out from the territory of Kansas—the single one whose soil and climate are adapted to the purposes of the Southerner, has caused and increased them to such a degree that there is now a strong probability that they the Southerners will acquire the upper hand and determine the future destiny of the State."

It is then, not merely an idle discussion of an abstract question, but simply this: whether Slavery—a greater curse to the white than the black—shall be spread over a region of country, which our wise fathers believed they had secured to freedom, by a law universally acquiesced in, and of more than "thirty years standing."

To show, at this day, the legality and constitutionality of the Missouri Compromise, would be like carrying water to the sea. Already the early Congress of 1787, exercised the authority [illegible] regulations for the [illegible] before they became States, in the transition period [illegible] to decide as to the existence or non-existence of Slavery. Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois, owe it to such an Ordinance of the year 1787, that they became free States. The Congress of the year 1789, reaffirmed that Ordinance.

The Courts of all the States, before which the question has come, have decided in favor of the exercise of this power, particularly the Appellate Courts of Louisiana, Kentucky, Mississippi and Missouri, as also the Supreme Court of the United States. All the Southerners in Congress voted, in the year 1820, for the Missouri Compromise. All the Southern members in the year 1850, when it was proposed to extend the same line to the Pacific Ocean,—Clay, Cass, Buchanan, not to mention Douglas, were its most earnest advocates. Also, only a few days before, Mr. Dixon, Whig, from Kentucky, had made his proposition to repeal the Missouri Compromise, Mr. Douglas, in a Report as Chairman of the Committee on Territories, had [illegible] any such Report. The Washington Union of (Feb. 1854,) warned the Democrats, in the most earnest manner, not to fall into the snare laid for them by Mr. Dixon; while now it is demanded, with unheard of insolence, that men who do not choose to abandon a most thoroughly matured opinion—who prefer fidelity to their convictions to any prospect of office or spoils—shall dance beneath the whip of self-constituted masters; now, men who remain true to the teachings of Jefferson, (for he was the first who succeeded in excluding from the new Territories the curse of Slavery)—are called Abolitionists, Black Republicans, yes, even Traitors!

You seem to be astonished at my assertion that the Freedom of every man is the rule, and Slavery the exception; and regard it as mere phraseology. I have only made use of words which all the writers on Civil and Personal Rights, and the Courts of all civilized countries in modern times, especially those of the United States, have been accustomed to repeat. According to the, at present, prevailing legislation of all civilized nations, with the exception of the Southern States of the Union and Brazil, pure Personal Slavery is entirely abolished. It has been, with certain marked exceptions, everywhere prohibited; and the Foreign Slave Trade, by International Treaty in which all Christian nations have taken part, has been declared Piracy. Where, then, Slavery is not expressly legalized by the local law, there it does not exist. Every man, whatever his complexion, becomes free the moment he sets his foot, with the consent of his master, on free soil. In all other countries, save in this Union, he becomes free without the consent of his master; only in the United States this rule does not prevail, because, by the provisions of the Constitution, fugitive slaves must be delivered up. Slavery is a relation limited to its locality. Just as little place is there for the idea of property in any man, where the laws do not expressly authorize "property in man." Even in the Slave States, themselves, is the property modified in various ways, and in many of them the [illegible] forbidden. [illegible] understand now, what I meant when I asserted that Slavery was purely a local institution, and what my view is of the common talk of Nebraska men, that every one must be free to take with him his property into the Territories of the United States, and that neither Congress nor the Territorial Legislature has the right to exclude this "property" from the rich free soil of the Territories.

I have been against the Nebraska Bill in its Northern as well as its Southern construction. I held it, from the first, to be a measure which would lead to agitation, strife, and bloodshed, if not to civil war. I know its private history and the motives of its author. According to the Northern construction, the people of a Territory themselves have the right to decide the question of Slavery at all times, before, as yet, the Territory has adopted a State Constitution. But, since the great majority of the members of Congress who voted for the Bill that is, all the Southerners, repudiated most decidedly, this construction at the time of the vote, while previously all the amendments, in which it was clearly expressed that the people of the Territory shall decide by their legislation, whether Slavery should be admitted or prohibited, were voted down by the friends of the bill in the House and Senate, none but the most utter blindness could put its faith in the Northern construction.

The whole doctrine of Popular Sovereignty in the Territories—regions of immense extent remaining after for many decades, with but a few hundred settlers, whose Governors, Sheriffs, Judges, and other high officers are appointed by the President, whose humble servants they are, whose Legislative Assemblies like the other officers are paid from the general Treasury, whose public buildings, bridges and roads are erected at general expense, whose laws even are printed at general expense—is mere [illegible] deception, and let any one who has been hitherto duped by it read the just published Report of the Territorial Committee in the Senate on Kansas matters, the articles of the Nebraska papers, even the Northern ones, which now again, all at once, talk so smoothly of the position of the United States as guardian, and of the settlers as minors, and also the resolutions of Nebraska meetings, even in our own State. What do you say, for example, to the following resolution of a Nebraska meeting, held but a few weeks since, at Belleville?

> "While we are willing that the question of Slavery should be left to the people of the Territory, [illegible] to be admitted into the Union, [illegible] Legislature of the Territories."

The chief organ of the Nebraska party in the State, the Springfield Register, declares that there is no better Democracy than this, and all the other journals of the same kind repeat the same; and in truth this construction of the Nebraska Bill is strictly in accordance with its letter. It says therein, that it shall be left to the People to govern their domestic institutions as they choose; but, the People only begin to exist, when they have formed their institutions, by which is justly meant their fundamental laws—and you will perhaps ask what is to take place in the intermediate time before the settlers (Squatters) become a People? In the intermediate time, runs the answer, Slavery has a legal existence, for the constitution, says Calhoun, carries Slavery with and in itself, and whenever any new district of country comes under the constitution, Slavery is established within it, until it is abolished by the after-formed State.

I think you will, by this time, understand that I was not simply playing with phrases, when, in my letter, so condemned by you, I said—"But that our constitution, the constitution of the freest land on earth, carries Slavery with it everywhere, wherever the American banner is unrolled, is an idea which with my whole heart I abhor."

I leave it now to you to decide whether this construction of the Nebraska Bill is false and lying or not. It is the only orthodox one, and should you remain much longer by your Northern construction, you will soon know how the Nebraska whiplash feels.

So much concerning the Nebraska Bill. I have gone more into detail than I wished, but this is the first, perhaps the only opportunity I may have of presenting my views respecting it in the German language, and I thank you for the opportunity which your public letter has afforded me.

As to the rest, you need not fear that I shall ever prove untrue to the Democracy. The Nebraska question in its present shape belongs to the Kingdom of the dead. The restoration of the Missouri Compromise, a measure which at all times had opponents, and those its strongest among the enemies of the Nebraska Bill, is now entirely impracticable. The Missouri Compact was founded in principles of mutual concession, and its whole force and strength consisted in the pious belief that it would be always preserved inviolate. The repeal has destroyed this belief, and to restore it now were only to galvanize the dead.

The only means which I can now see to end this unhappy agitation, is to admit as soon as possible, Kansas as a State, as California was admitted, into the Union, without preparation and with the utmost haste, in order to put an end, as soon as possible, to the destructive feuds which the Slavery question caused in the organization of that Territory; so should Kansas be admitted without holding her too strictly to bare formalities.

The true statesman does not stumble at the violation of prescriptive forms. He despises the reactionary howling which those put up, who wished to be the leaders of the young Democracy and dare now to talk of insurrection, treason and the like. It may be that the number of the inhabitants of Kansas is not yet sufficient to entitle their application to a hearing. But in the fall she will have as many inhabitants at least as California had when she was admitted. I am convinced as regards this new and practical question, that the Democracy of the North will soon assume again the only position worthy of itself—that, namely, of opposition to the extension of Slavery, and of sympathy with every movement by which the People seek to secure their inalienable rights. That the adopted citizens—especially the Germans—should take an honorable and worthy position, lies as near my heart as yours; that consists only in this; that, as regards every question, they keep their hands unspotted and act independently. The invasion of our western lands by the institution of Slavery and all the evils which follow in its train, is to me a subject of such vast import that it cannot be made subordinate to any mere question of party organization. There may be other pressing questions for the adopted citizens, for which they may very pardonably put aside the Slavery question and go with the Nebraska Party, not because, but notwithstanding, they have bowed the neck to Southern influence. When the moment for deciding comes, let each one choose according to the then existing circumstances. But the worst thing, politically, which the adopted citizens in my opinion could do, would be to join blindly and overhastily any party of the present.

And above all, let them guard against being frightened by phantoms. Know-Nothingism has no prospect of enduring success. A party which persecutes citizens on account of either their birth or belief, and inscribes this openly upon its banners, could not long exist in this century in the most obscure and despotic lands, much less in this. The Temperance Fanaticism has already gone by its own help to the ground. Since the Maine Law has been repealed in Maine itself, we need not especially fear it in the State of Illinois, where the people themselves, in their majesty, have vetoed it by such a countless majority. These bugbears, which have driven thousands into the Nebraska camp, have, I think, played their part out, and may now be carried out and buried. This is, however, but my individual opinion. Others may think that these heresies possess more vitality, and, feel themselves compelled to regard them as leading questions. I shall never blame any man who fights against the impudent herd of Know-Nothings, or strikes at the fanaticism of Temperance with any lawful weapon. Only let all be done at the right time, and let us show our courage against the living—not the dead.

I have no reason to suppose that your letter to me was not written with the best intention. You wish that I should remain in the political field, and not ruin my prospects, both for my own sake and also for the sake of my countrymen. My dear Sir, I know not that the Germans wish to see one of their countrymen in high political position; but so much I know well, that the great majority of my fellow countrymen would not chose to purchase such a distinction, if it may be so regarded, at the sacrifice of the genuine convictions of any man. No people have a higher opinion of manly consistency in politics than the Germans; no people are slower to pardon a political weather-cock. A German who should reach the highest point of honor in the land, by sacrificing his convictions and favoring the extension of Slavery—would find his name branded both here and also in that old country which gave us life, and to which we are so far bound as to see, that through the conduct of no one of its sons, shall it ever be degraded.

If, in this reply, written hastily and at intervals I may, perhaps, manifest too much warmth or sharpness of expression, be assured that I entertain no ill-feeling. My intention was to speak of you personally, with the respect which is always due to an intelligent and able opponent. With the somewhat bold request that you will publish this communication and send to me a copy of the sheet containing it, I [illegible]

Mormon News—From Salt Lake.

After five months interruption of our Utah newspaper exchange, we welcome all the missing back numbers of the Deseret News.

On the 23d of February Gov. Young issued his proclamation, ordering the Territorial troops to hold themselves in readiness to repel the encroachments of the Utah Indians. This tribe has been killing and driving off the cattle of the Mormons. Citizens were cautioned against venturing out alone, especially in sparsely settled sections, and were instructed, in going from place to place, to travel in force and with means of defence.

For a long time the Indians have been mischievous, and on the 21st of February three Mormon herdsmen were killed near Salt Lake. A posse of men with writs from the U. S. Court attempted to arrest some Indians, but the Indians showed fight, and fired upon the officers. In the melee one Indian and one squaw were killed, (the latter accidentally,) and a Mormon named George Carson was killed.

The Board of Regents have made some progress in preparing school books in the Deseret Alphabet.

Fifty missionaries were appointed on the 24th of February to go abroad, to Europe, Australia, East Indies, &c.

On the 3d of March the News announces the "benefit night of Mr. Snow, who will play 'Virginius,' in the thrilling tragedy entitled 'Virginius, the Roman Father,' after which songs, a dance, and the farce of 'The Widow's Victim.'"

There had been, up to March, no mail at Salt Lake City from the East since October.

The editor of the News raps those Mormons who carry looking-glasses in the crown of the hat and use them in church for [illegible] the faces of such ladies [illegible] in this wise:

"[illegible] bashful and morbidly inquisitive [illegible] had reflected on a well-known law of optics, a little as diligently as they manage the angle of reflection, they would have known at once that the line of sight belonging to the face reflected could follow as direct a course as the ray of light, and that the sly squinting of the [illegible] would be detected at once.

"We are fond of useful inventions, but are candid in thinking that this use of the looking-glass is a perversion, and that the present gentle hint had better be observed and profited by."

A Model Platform.

The Republicans of Freeport have organized a Republican Club, with the following as a Platform, which, as it is, deduced from the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States, will be stigmatized by our opponents as rank Abolitionism:

We associate ourselves together under the name and title of Republicans, and adopt the following as our political Platform; to wit:

1. That outside of State jurisdiction, the Constitutional power of the Federal Government should be exerted to secure Life, Liberty, and Happiness to all men.
2. There should be neither Slavery nor Involuntary Servitude, except for the punishment of crimes in any of the Territories of the United States.
3. By the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States, the people are made the rightful source of all political power, and all officers should as far as practicable be chosen by a direct vote of the people.
4. We are in favor of the present Constitutional Naturalization Laws, and are opposed to any change or alterteration of the same.
5. Candidates for political offices should be men of undoubted integrity and sobriety, and pledged to support these principles, by all lawful and Constitutional means.
6. We are in favor of an economical administration of the State and National Governments and will, so far as our influence goes, hold public men and the officers of every department of Government, to a strict accountability.

The Camel Expedition.—The United States storeship Supply, dispatched some time since to the Mediterranean for a cargo of camels, was at Kingston, Jamaica, on the 13th ultimo. Of these animals she has thirty-two on board. The Indianola (Texas) Bulletin of the 12th ult. says:

"Workmen are now busy in erecting enclosures for the camels that are daily expected at port for service on the Western Plains. The enclosure will cover ten acres of ground. It is proposed to keep the animals at that place several months to recruit them. Some of the animals were presented by the Viceroy of Egypt to our Government, but most of them were procured by Maj. Wayne and Capt. Porter, under the appropriation made for the purpose at the last session of Congress. Some Arabs accompany them to take care of them."

Not Floored.—Capt. G. W. I. Cone writes us a note in which he represents that "his constituents" are anxious to know wherein or how he was floored at the Dark Lantern State Council in Springfield. Capt. G. W. I. Cone and his "constituents" may be reassured; the publication of his name was a mistake growing out of the ignorance of the sender of the dispatch, of the name and quality of the distinguished patriots who foregathered at that rendezvous of Intolerance and Pro-Slaveryism. We presume that another was intended and that he was floored in debate.

Later from Panama.

CHARLESTON, May 9.

The sloop-of-war St. Mary's had arrived. Her commander had enquired into the cause of the late outrages. A warm correspondence has taken place between him and the Governor of Panama.

Restive under Restraint.

DETROIT, May 5.

The Detroit Light Guards were called out yesterday afternoon to keep the peace. James Sherlock was to have been tried for a violation of the liquor law, but the case was postponed until to-day. No further trouble anticipated.—Several arrests were made.

The [illegible] Element in the Cabinet.

NEW YORK, May 5.

The Herald's correspondent telegraphs from Washington:

"A report is current about the State Department this morning to the effect that Gen. Walker has sent to New Orleans for recruits for his army, as his hopes of success since Schlessinger's defeat were not of an encouraging character. The distinguished person who gave me this information asserts it to be correct, but is apprehensive that the Administration here will interfere, and prevent him from reaching Nicaragua. He represents the readiness of hundreds to leave New Orleans, and is assured from the extraordinary excitement prevailing in that city in favor of Walker, that should the Marshal of that District interpose sea force to prevent the departure of those en route upon going to Walker's aid, serious consequences may follow, as opposing forces will certainly be used.

"The Cabinet meeting to-morrow will be truly important, from the attempt to carry the recognizance of Gen. Walker's Government. The President is still strongly inclined, and undoubtedly pressed by Quitman, Douglas and others. The present policy is to introduce this subject in the platform at Cincinnati. A portion of the Cabinet that favored the project three days ago, are less anxious after opposing considerations have been presented.

News Summary.

....The Tennessee papers announce the death of the venerable Major Marr, formerly a member of Congress from that State.

....The Republicans of Boston have chartered a steamer for an excursion to Philadelphia at the time of the convention.

....Mr. Bell, United States Senator from New Hampshire, is still unable to take his seat, and it is said he will resign in June.

....Josiah Bradlee, Esq., of Boston, celebrated May Day by donating $5,000 to the Association for the Relief of Aged Indigent Females.

....It is said that a Yankee baby will crawl out of his cradle, take a survey of it, invent an improvement, and apply for a patent before he is six months old.

...."Turning in the Grave."—Under this head the Springfield Republican chronicles the recent meeting of the "Straight Whigs" of Boston.

....Every tree in the fine orchard of Rev. Mr. Fellows, at Tiverton, R. I., has been girdled and all the vines and shrubbery about his premises cut up. This atrocious vandalism is attributed to Mr. F.'s activity in the temperance cause.

....Chevalier Wykoff, of Miss Gamble notoriety, has turned up again. We observe that he was an honored guest at a grand dinner recently given by the Lord Mayor of London to Minister Dallas.

....A considerable quantity of cork oak acorns were imported this season by the Patent Office, and distributed in the Middle and Southern States. These acorns are from the South of France, and were transported in tin cases.

....The first two weeks in April on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh road show an increase of freight from Pittsburgh to Cleveland of 300 tons, in comparison with the first two weeks of April, 1855. The local freight is also better, as well as the passenger traffic.

Wheat in Northern Wisconsin.—The Waupacca Ledger says:

From all parts of the country we hear the prospect for winter wheat is good. Farmers say it has stood the winter well, and looks first rate this spring.

The Green Bay Advocate says:

Winter wheat looks well. All fears that it has suffered any serious injury from the frost are rapidly disappearing. Each warm day makes the fields look greener and better.

The Richland county Observer says:

The Beaver Dam Republican says, that throughout that county, as well as Columbia, Marquette, Fond du Lac and all around us, the growing crop never looked brighter.—Milwaukee American.

Railroad Accident.—The 8 o'clock Mail Train from Chicago, on the G. & C. U. R. R., due here at 2 o'clock P. M. yesterday, ran off the track three miles this side of Pecatonica Station, through the misplacement of a switch. Considerable damage was done to the locomotive, mail car and baggage car, and all the passenger cars, four or five in number, were thrown off and partly capsized, excepting the rear car of the train. Fortunately no one was severely injured. One or two received some slight bruises. The accident blocked up the track, delaying the trains from each way, but they are running regularly again now.—Freeport Journal, 8th.

Shooting Affair.—One of the axemen in one of the companies of Engineers engaged in locating the line of the Racine and Mississippi Railroad, a few miles from this city, was shot this morning by the owner of a farm across which the line runs. Twenty-six shot were lodged in one of his limbs between the knee and the thigh. Sheriff Narramore was immediately put on the track of the guilty party, and a full investigation will be had.—Freeport Journal, 8th.

The Bridge.—We understand that the Bridge Company are actively engaged in repairing the late damage to the bridge. A hundred and fifty men are constantly employed, and it will be made perfect again in fifteen or twenty days. Most of the timbers of the part which fell can be used again, and such as are lacking will be brought from Chicago immediately. Whether the partial destruction of the bridge resulted from accident or design, it will soon be ready to stand its future chances. It is a Northern Institution and it is bound to stand.—Davenport Gazette.

No Light.—We now have no beacon at the entrance to the mouth of the River. If a propeller should arrive from below in the night, and see a light in the direction of where one ought to be, he would undoubtedly beach his vessel. This was what wrecked the Schooner last fall. If there is no one else to attend to it, the Insurance Companies would make money to repair it at once. Not another night should pass without a light.—Milwaukee American.

NEW FRENCH READING BOOK.—S. C. GRIGGS & Co., Publishers, 111 Lake street, Chicago, will publish on the 20th of May, the Principal Plays of
as follows:—
CHEFS D'ŒUVRE DES J. RACINE. Prepared for the use of Colleges and Schools, with explanatory notes and grammatical references to the "New French Method." By Louis Fasquelle, LL.D., Professor of Modern Languages and Literature in the University of Michigan, Author of the "New French Method," "Colloquial French Reader," etc. In one handsome 12mo. vol., 352 pp. Price 75 cents, retail.
The Instructor and Student have long felt the want of an edition of the best pieces of Racine, with explanatory notes and grammatical references.
Nearly two centuries have elapsed since Racine wrote; the language of France has, of course, undergone many changes, numerous expressions have no longer the same meaning as in Racine's time, and several of his words are obsolete. The Student, therefore, has not derived from a perusal of the immortal productions the benefit which might be derived from a thorough understanding of his works.
This edition contains his best plays: LES PLAIDEURS, ANDROMAQUE, IPHIGENIE, ESTHER, and ATHALIE. The notes will be found, in all the plays, sufficiently full without being diffuse; in Les Plaideurs, the only comedy written by Racine, the explanations are, however, much fuller than in the others. This piece, an imitation of the Wasps of Aristophanes, far surpassing the original, has not hitherto been put into the hands of the student, on account of the peculiar difficulties of its style, its many proverbial expressions and allusions, and one or two exceptional passages. The latter have been left out and the later fully explained.
The grammatical references are made to Fasquelle's French Course, a work which in little more than four years has already passed through thirty-three large editions.
Copies of Racine, as soon as published, will be sent post paid to teachers for examination, on receipt of the retail price in stamps or money. Address

CLIFFORD'S PROBATE MANUEL.
Have now in press and will publish in a few days
A PRACTICAL TREATISE ON THE LAW relating to Executors, Administrators and Guardians, adapted to the Laws of Illinois, with numerous forms, by George A. Clifford.
From the Hon. M. Brayman, Assistant Attorney for the Illinois Central Railroad.—Your proposed Treatise on Administrators Executors and Guardians is right, in time and place, in design, arrangement, and execution, affording as it does a familiar and practical guide to those charged with the settlement of estates and the adjustment of rights under them,—conducting the inquirer step by step from the beginning to the end of the business in hand; pointing out each duty, and the manner of performing it. It will not fail to be appreciated, as a well arranged, and useful work.
From the Hon. John A. Bross U. S. Commissioner.—I have examined the proof-sheets of your Treatise on Administrators, Executors, and Guardians, and believe that it is a work of great practical value, and especially adapted to meet the wants of the profession. It is indispensable for all those who act in the capacity of Administrators, Executors and Guardians.
From the Chicago Democrat.
The above work is a systematic compilation of the laws, (statute and common) relating to the duties of those concerned in the administration of estates. It embraces, also, the rules of practice in probate courts, and all necessary forms for the transaction of business connected with the management and settlement of estates. This work cannot fail to be a highly useful one, and must fill a space which has heretofore been entirely void. The author has bestowed much pains in the compilation of the work, and from his ability and reputation we have no doubt he will produce a valuable compendium of the forms of law connected with the subject on which he treats.
From the Chicago Democratic Press.
The object of the work is to furnish those concerned in the administration of Estates with a thorough and complete manual to guide them in the discharge of the duties of their offices. It cannot but prove invaluable to a class of men, who for want of a new find themselves oftentimes involved in perplexity and subjected to much annoyance and expense. The work is done, and well done, and M. Clifford deserves no small credit for it.
From the Knoxville Journal.
This will be a welcome work and from Mr. Clifford's known ability, cannot fail to give satisfaction.
From the Chicago Tribune.
It is a publication much needed, and the author has succeeded in all that he has undertaken.
A valuable work.—[Stark County Advocate].
From the Henry County Advocate.
This work will comprise all the laws in force upon the subject, with important suggestions and instructions to those entrusted with the settlement of estates. The work is much needed and will supply a desideratum in the practice of this branch of law throughout the State. The known character and ability of Mr. Clifford as a lawyer, is a sufficient guaranty that the work will be well executed and reliable. We hope to see a copy of it in the hands of every Lawyer, Executor and Administrator in Illinois.
Orders addressed to the Publishers, will receive prompt attention. S. C. GRIGGS & CO.,

CAUTION TO WESTERN MERCHANTS.—WOLFE'S SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS.—This celebrated medicinal beverage is manufactured at the factory of the undersigned at Schiedam, Holland. He is the sole importer, as well as the exclusive manufacturer of the article, and no preparation bearing the name of "Schnapps," that is not procured either from his establishment in New York, or from his agents in other cities, is genuine and reliable.

It is made from barley of the finest quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers, new settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South, and South-west are peculiarly liable—the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely invaluable; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstruction of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-simile of his signature on the label.

UDOLPHO WOLFE,

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

Since the introduction of my Schiedam Schnapps into the United States, a number of [illegible] in New York, Boston and Philadelphia, have commenced putting up inferior and poison Gin, and calling it Schnapps; the name belongs expressly to my article, all others are counterfeits and impositions on the public.

CAUTION TO PERSONS WHO DRINK AT BARS AND HOTELS.

Numerous complaints are made of persons who keep bars on Steamboats and in Hotels, who fill up empty bottles with common Gin, and sell it as the [illegible] for my

SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS.

I would therefore advise all who drink the Schnapps at such places, to mark the appearance of the bottle; and if the cork, side wrapper or label should be defaced, to refuse to drink, unless a fresh bottle is opened.

DAILY TRIBUNE

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

WILLIAM W. PECK, ... EDITOR.

Saturday Morning, ... May 10, 1856.

QUERY.—If several young ladies of our city go to church to close their eyes, how many go to eye their clothes? Our Jim pauses for a reply.

EXPECTED ARRIVAL.—From a dispatch from Erie, we learn that the Keystone State, the pioneer boat of the Collingwood Line, will reach this port to-morrow or next day at furthest.

MAIL AGENT.—We learn that Mr. John M. Green has been appointed a mail route agent on the Chicago and Rock Island Railroad vice Capt. J. W. Cornell resigned. Mr. Green has been employed in the Post Office as one of the clerks for the ladies' letter delivery.

WANTED.—A chap advertises for a house to rent at a price something less per year than the original cost of the structure, and not over an hour's walk from the Court House. Has anybody any such house to rent? Don't all speak at once.

CLUB MEETING.—An adjourned meeting of the Anti-Slavery Extension Club of the 3d and 4th wards will be held at Bell's Commercial College on State street, this evening at 7 1-2 o'clock.
Wm. H. Adams, Chairman.

SPIRITUALISM.—Hereafter the meetings of the Harmonialists of Chicago, will be held at Harmony Hall, 48 Clark street, at 2 1-2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Public are invited to attend.

PHILLY AND KIT.—Wallace, at No. 25 Clark st., has received a new Book entitled "Philly and Kit;" or Life and Raiment," by Caroline Chesebro', author of many popular works.

ATTENTION, COMPANY A.—The members of Company A, National Guard, will meet at their Armory, on Monday evening, May 12th, at 7 1-2 o'clock. A punctual attendance is requested as business of importance will be transacted. By order
GEO. S. WRIGHT, Lieut. Commanding.

SUDDEN DEATH.—We regret to learn that Mr. Shute one of the members of the Campbell troupe, expired very suddenly yesterday at the American House in this city, where he boarded. His death was occasioned by heart disease, and he was sick not quite two days.

STOLEN LAND WARRANTS.—On Thursday night two Land Warrants for one hundred and sixty acres each, and six for eighty acres each were stolen from a Banker in Davenport. The warrants were abstracted by him from the Banker's pocket by some dexterous thief. No trace had been found of the thief or warrants when our informant left.

ARRESTED.—We learn that a man, John Thomas, was arrested yesterday by Capt Connett for having skeleton keys and burglar's tools in his possession. Several gold watches were found in his possession, some bank bills which it is alleged are stolen. His case was sent before the Grand Jury and an indictment found. It is suspected that Thomas is connected with a gang who are playing the "ball and safe" game.

MORE SPLENDID BUILDINGS.—Among the innumerable fine buildings now being erected here, we observed the foundations almost laid yesterday for three new storehouses on River street. They are for H. Norton & Co., and are located on their old coal yard next to Drew's Dock. They are to be 32 feet wide each, or 96 feet front by 101 feet deep; five stories high, besides a basement of nine and a half feet, or six stories on the river front, of pressed Milwaukee brick, with stone trimmings, &c. Boyington is the architect, and these storehouses will not be exceeded in elegance or strength by any in the city.

POLICE COURT.—Rodolph Wellington, Patrick Dean, and Thomas Conners were fined $5 each for violating the Bridge Ordinance.

For being drunk and disorderly William Powell, John Smith, and Castius Fine were fined $2 each; Henry Meritt and James Mahone $3 each; J. W. Henarman and John Thomas $5 each; Wastin Hogan, charged with the same offence, gave special bail.

RECORDER'S COURT.—In this Court on Thursday and yesterday Solomon Auerback plead guilty to the charge of having been one of the men who robbed the store of Messrs. Cooley, Wadsworth & Co. last March. Morris Kohn, it will be remembered, was convicted at the last term of this Court of being a participator in that robbery and sent to Alton. Jacob Newman, alias Harris Davis, alias Harris Greenburgh was on trial for being one of the gang engaged in the robbery, when the Court adjourned last evening.

James Henry was convicted of larceny, and his term in the penitentiary fixed at one year. William Welch shared the same fate.

DETECTING AND COLLECTING POLICE AGENCY.—It will be seen by an advertisement in our paper that C. P. BRADLEY, B. C. YATES, J. H. WILLIAMS, and CHARLES NOYES, have formed a partnership under the title of C. P. BRADLEY & Co., for the pursuit of a general Detective and Collecting Police business, and their office is at No. 93 Randolph street, second floor.

There are perhaps no more skilful and reliable Detectives in the whole country than these four men who compose this firm, and few who have met with such uniform success in the detection of offenders, and recovery of stolen property. Capt. Bradley, while chief of the Chicago Police, and his able assistants above-named, have won the highest credit for deligence, efficiency, and skill, and but very few scoundrels escaped their clutches. This firm will ferret out rogues of every sort and kind, the gentlemanly and accomplished swindler, the fiend who places obstructions upon railroad tracks, and all the lesser ilk that live by crime and fraud. We can confidently assure our readers that any business entrusted to their hands will be promptly and carefully attended to.

THE PROPOSED LIQUOR ORDINANCE.—The following is a copy of the proposed Liquor Ordinance which is intended to take the place of the existing one. We publish it because every one is, or should be, particularly interested in the matter:

AN ORDINANCE.

To amend an ordinance regulating the sale of spiritual liquors, passed September 24th, 1855.

Be it ordained by the Common Council of the city of Chicago:

SEC. 1. That the Mayor and Clerk of the city of Chicago are hereby authorized to grant a license for the sale of spirituous, vinous and fermented liquors to any person or persons, upon their executing to the city a bond with at least two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Mayor, in the penal sum of one thousand dollars, conditioned that the person or persons so licensed will faithfully observe and keep all ordinances passed upon this subject, together with this ordinance, and all ordinances to which this is an amendment upon, he, she, or them, paying for the use of the city at the rate of fifty ($50) dollars per annum. Provided, that all licenses issued or granted under this ordinance shall expire on the first day of April in each and every year.

SEC. 2. No license issued or granted under this ordinance shall be assigned or transferred unless by an order of the Common Council first had and obtained for that purpose; and it is hereby made the especial duty of the City Marshall to have made out a list of all persons engaged in the sale of spirituous, vinous and fermented liquors, together with their place of business twice in each year, and place the same in the City Clerk's office, there to remain on file.

SEC. 3. It is hereby further made the especial duty of the City Marshal to cause the several Policemen under him to ascertain the names of him, her, or them, (in their several divisions,) who have not complied with the provisions of this ordinance, or any ordinance to which this is an amendment, and report their names to him, and when so reported it shall be the duty of the said Marshal to furnish the City Attorney with a correct list of said persons, and the City Attorney shall thereupon proceed to prosecute the several persons so reported, before some competent Court having jurisdiction thereof.

SEC. 4. Any and all persons who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance, or any ordinance to which this is an amendment, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in a sum of not less than fifty dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars. Provided, that any and all persons who shall be fined under this ordinance, or any ordinance to which this is an amendment, and shall refuse to pay the same, then, and in that case, the Court before whom such conviction shall be had, shall commit such person or persons to the City Bridewell, there to remain at hard labor for ninety days, unless discharged by due course of law.

SEC. 5. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its due publication, and all ordinances and parts of ordinances conflicting herewith shall be, and the same are hereby, repealed, said repeal to take effect from and after due publication hereof. Provided, no cause of action, or prosecution for the recovery of any fine or penalty commenced before the taking effect of such repeal shall in any manner be affected thereby. Provided, further, that no license heretofore granted under the ordinance to which this is an amendment and the rights acquired thereby, shall in any manner be affected by the passage of this ordinance until after the expiration of the time for which such license shall have been granted.

For the Chicago Tribune.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH NEAR UNION PARK.—This Church is now fully organized and the vestry have unanimously called the Rev. H. H. [illegible], of Kenosha, Wisconsin, to become their Rector. Mr. B. has accepted the call and has entered upon his duties as Minister of the Parish.

For the present, the congregation of St. John's Church will worship in the house of Mr. Peck, on West Lake street, opposite Union Park—Sundays at 10 1-2 A. M. and 3 1-2 P. M.

At a meeting of the congregation on Monday evening last, it was unanimously resolved to proceed at once to erect a plain wooden building thirty by sixty-five feet, on a lot loaned by Mr. Job Carpenter, for that purpose, free of rent for one year.

The Rector of the Parish and Mr. Carpenter were appointed a committee to obtain the funds necessary to erect the building. The committee have entered upon their work, and so far have met with encouraging success; still the amount necessary to be raised cannot be realized in the immediate neighborhood of the parish, and hence it will be necessary to call upon the friends of religion in other parts of the city to aid in this good work. Probably, in no part of this great busy city is a Church more needed than in this locality. It is estimated that within the radius of a mile from Union Park, there are already between three and four thousand people, and as yet there is no Church edifice of any sort. We hope therefore, that this effort to establish religious services near Union Park, will meet with the encouragement it so justly deserves.

On Sunday (to-morrow) morning there will be no service, but at 3 1-2 P. M., Rev. Dr. Smallwood will officiate at the house of Mr. Peck.

MORE AIR.—Mr. EDITOR:—In your paper of yesterday morning, I notice a paragraph with respect to the ventilation of the Court Rooms. Will you not continue to "stir them up" until the nuisance is abated? How Judges and lawyers can sit and endure the stench of those rooms, day after day, without a single murmur—a stench more fetid and more productive of disease than any slaughter house or uncleaned alley in the city—is more than I can imagine. By tearing away the windows over the doors, and requiring the Janitor to keep them open at all times when it does not rain, might effect some thing. If the present directors of improvement will not attend to it, will not the Board of Health take it up as they would any other death-disseminating public nuisance? A MEMBER OF THE BAR.

GRAIN MOVEMENTS.—The St. Louis Democrat of the 8th says: "Produce is not arriving from Illinois as is desirable. Chicago at present offers better prices than St. Louis for grain. The Persia, on her last trip took to La Salle for shipment by canal to Chicago, 2,500 sacks of wheat, part of which she took on board here, and part at Liverpool, on the Illinois; and we are informed that there are yet 7,000 sacks at points on the Illinois, destined for Chicago.

On Wednesday last, the Canal boat, Thomas Richmond, cleared from this port with nearly two thousand bushels of wheat to be ground at the Lockport Mills.

"CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE COMPOSITORS,

Mr. FARQUHAR, long time Compositor, then foreman, and latterly Commercial Editor of the TRIBUNE, being about to leave, will carry with him this pleasing memento of the good feeling of those with whom he has been associated. It is a beautiful gift very appropriately bestowed.

A MINOR NUISANCE.—EDS. TRIBUNE:—You will confer a special favor on the thousands who pass along North Water street (daily,) by calling the attention of the proper authorities to a sign-board, marked "Justice Office," which swings above and across the sidewalk (between Clark and Lasalle streets,) too low for a person carrying an umbrella, or any person above ordinary height, to pass without stooping, or having his hat or umbrella top crushed. A CITIZEN.

MICHIGAN CENTRAL RAILROAD.—The earnings of this road for the month of April, 1856, as compared with the corresponding period of 1855, were as follows:

	1856.	1855.	Increase.
Passengers	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Freight	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Miscellaneous	[illegible]	7,207 21	[illegible]
Total	$280,807 01	$235,484 79	$45,322 22

REAL ESTATE SALES.—Isaac Anderson, Esq., has purchased twenty acres in Section 3 at $500 per acre, one-fourth cash, balance canal time. He also purchased yesterday, 65 feet on Jackson street, by 82 1-2 deep (two houses on it) for $10,000, quarter cash, balance on long time.

MAIL TO MORRIS.—A subscriber to the Daily Tribune at Morris, complains that his paper does not reach that place on the day of publication. Will the Route Agents on the Rock Island Road try and remedy this trouble? The mail train leaves Chicago at 2:30 P. M., and the distance is less than three hours run to Morris.

RUNAWAY.—Yesterday evening a pair of horses attached to a buggy and left standing in front of the Tremont House, became frightened and ran away, completely demolishing the vehicle. The horses were not injured.

SECOND WARD CLUB.—A meeting of the Second Ward Anti-Slavery Extension Club is called for this evening at Bell's Commercial Hall. A full attendance is especially desired.

POETRY.—We learn that a volume of Poetry by a lady residing in this city, is about to be published by a New York house.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

PANORAMA AND COSMORAMA.—With the greatest pleasure we call the attention of our readers to the Panorama and Cosmorama, which is now exhibited at Kinzie Hall, on the North Side, opposite Foster House. This P. and C. deserves undoubtedly public attention and patronage, as it is the best one that ever was exhibited in the United States, both in regard to its contents and beautiful pictures, which are true copies of the most eminent masters. We learn that it will be open for exhibition only to-night between six and 10 o'clock, and for the last time on next Monday night at the same hour, on account of arrangements entered with other cities, and we know for certain that every friend of the fine arts, by spending an hour for to see this P. and C., will have a good enjoyment of the soul and mind.

A PERFUMED BREATH.—What lady or gentleman would remain under the curse of a disagreeable breath when, by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers" as a dentifrice, would not only render it sweet, but leave the teeth white as alabaster? Many persons do not know their breath is bad, and the subject is so delicate their friends will never mention it. Pour a single drop of the "Balm" on your tooth-brush and wash the teeth night and morning. A fifty cent bottle will last a year.

A beautiful Complexion may easily be acquired by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers." It will remove tan, pimples, and freckles from the skin, leaving it of a soft and roseate hue. Wet a towel, pour on two or three drops, and wash the face night and morning.

SHAVING MADE EASY.—Wet your shaving-brush in either warm or cold water, pour on two or three drops of "Balm of a Thousand Flowers," rub the beard well and it will make a beautiful soft lather, much facilitating the operation of shaving. Price only fifty cents. Fetbridge & Co., proprietors, N. Y.

DIED.

On Friday, the 9th inst., in this city, GEORGE SHUTE, Violinist for West and Peel's Campbell Minstrels.
The friends of the troupe, and members of the Masonic fraternity are invited to attend the funeral on Sunday, at 10 A. M., from the American Hotel.

THINGS TO THINK OF.—Most persons are aware of the fact, that in the Eastern markets, as the season begins to wane, the importers and jobbers become more and more anxious to close out their stocks, and make greater or less sacrifices to do so. In which they evince good judgment, as thereby they avoid a heavier loss by carrying over large stocks. Those who are familiar with the markets of New York and other Eastern cities, will readily understand us.

Taking advantage of this law of trade, we have spent the last four weeks at the East, in selecting, in addition to our present heavy stock, a VERY LARGE ASSORTMENT of the choicest and latest styles of imported and domestic goods for Gentlemen's Spring and Summer wear, which we have in many instances, bought at figures varying from 20 to 25 per cent. less than the same goods were selling at in February (the month in which all other houses in this city make their Spring purchases). Our extensive manufacturing facilities enable us to make these goods up at once, and IN THE LATEST FASHIONS and LATEST FASHIONS, at moderate prices. The advantage which we derive from this combination of circumstances, we invariably share with our customers. We are now, and shall be during the season, in almost DAILY receipt BY EXPRESS, of the most desirable styles of CLOTHING and FURNISHING GOODS, many of which are not to be found at any other establishment in town. All of which we are DETERMINED TO SELL AT LOWER PRICES THAN OTHERS CAN WITHOUT LOSS.—"A word to the wise."
One price only. TAPPEN, 49 Clark-st.

Friday Evening, ... May 9, 1856.

CHICAGO WHOLESALE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE,
Friday Evening, May 9, 1856.

A good attendance on 'change this morning, but few transactions. Receipts are dropping off in Grain considerably, and it will take higher prices for Wheat, Corn and Oats to bring it out of the country. Freights are no better. We note sales of country Mess Pork at the outside of our quotations. Potatoes are very scarce and higher. A good demand has sprung up for Grass Seed, and we raise our quotations, but it will likely be temporary. Green Apples are very plenty and low. A private dispatch from New Orleans quotes an advance of ½c ℔ on Sugars. We give sales and nominal rates as follows:

CHARTERS.—One firm chartered the propeller Buffalo at 7c for corn to Buffalo; the Jesse Hoyt at 6½c; the brig Minnesota at 6c, and part of the schooner [illegible] at 6c; schooner Miranda was chartered Thursday at [illegible] for wheat to Oswego.

FLOUR.—A small sale of country extra was made at $7 ℔ bbl; prices are unchanged; city millers and other dealers are selling small lots to city retailers and bakers at $6,75, $7,25 and $7,75, according to quality, with 25c ℔ bbl advance on retail sales. Some small lots of Michigan and country brands sell to city trade and for lumber country, at prices ranging from $6,50@8,25, according to quality.

WHEAT.—Scarce and firm, but no advance. Offers at $1,10 for spring on board; sales of 600 bu spring at $1,07 in store; 100 bu spring at $1,07 to mill; 200 bu red to mill at $1,25 and 200 bu prime white at $1,40 to mill; spring to store is $1,05@1,07; red to mill is $1,25@1,28; white to mill $1,35@1,45. There is not spring enough on the market to make up a cargo.

CORN.—Sales reported on 'change of 10,000 bu in store at 36c ℔ 60 lbs; nine car loads at same; two canal boat loads (about 7,000 bu) prime at 37c ℔ 56 lbs afloat; 2,500 bu do at same; 15,000 bu on board in next 15 days at 37½c; 6,000 bu at 37c on board; five cars at 36½c ℔ 60 lbs delivered; 3,000 bu in store at 35c ℔ 56 lbs, and 5,000 bu in store at 37c ℔ 60 lbs; 1,000 bu on board at 37c ℔ 56 lbs.

OATS.—Sales of 2,500 bu at 28½c afloat; a few hundred bu on track at 29c; in bags at depot at 30c; to livery stables at 31 and to boats at 32c.

RYE.—Firm at 50c@60c.

MESS PORK.—By the quantity $15,00@16,00 ℔ bbl, for city packed: $14,50@$15 for country. Prime mess $14. Rumps $12,00. Sales of 100 bbls and 50 bbls country mess at $15,50 ℔ bbl. Not likely to sustain these prices of corn keeps down.

BEEF.—Little inquiry—nominally $12,00@12,50.

LARD.—9@9½c in kegs and bbls; 10c for nice in jars or firkins. By the quantity 9½c is freely offered and 9c asked.

CUT MEATS.—City cured Hams 10@11c; country 9½@11c by small lots, and 9@9½c in large lots; pickled Hams in casks 8c; dry salted Shoulders 5½c. We hear of 32 tierces coming from Springfield of canvassed—held at about at about 12½c.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

ARRIVAL OF PROPELLERS.—Among the arrivals of vessels is the large propeller Oriental with goods from Cleveland, the first of the American line's propellers for the season. Also the propeller Young America with goods from the same port, and the Prairie State from Ogdensburgh, with goods from Boston. The two latter are of the Northern Transportation line.

THE GOOD HARVEY.—This fine new schooner, just built for Wilson & Co., of this city and sailed by Capt. Oliver, arrived here yesterday on her first trip up from Cleveland. She is all that was represented by our Cleveland contemporaries, and all the insurance companies pass her as A No. 1.

A FOG BELL AT BUFFALO.—The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, of Wednesday last, says:—"At the instance of Captain Woodruff, a fog bell has been placed at the entrance of the harbor, on the outside of the light-house. The bell is from Meneely's foundry, and weighs 1,400 pounds. It is fixed with clock work, which, after being wound up, will run for four and a half hours, keeping the bell tolling six times a minute during that time. It requires an hour to wind it up, and if desirable, from the thickness of the fog, the tolling of the bell may be kept up during the evening. This is a much needed appendage at this point, as frequent delays occur to vessels seeking the harbor, and unable to sight the entrance."

LAUNCHED.—A steamer called the Mary Jane, and built and owned by Messrs. Hill & Gibson, of [illegible], was launched from the ship yard in that city on Saturday afternoon last, and is intended for the lumber and stone trade.—[Mil. Wis.

The propeller J. Barber has just been built by [illegible], and owned by the estate of Jacob Barber, is intended for the Chicago trade, [illegible] commanded by Capt. [illegible], and will make her first trip to Chicago next week, touching at the ports on the west shore of Lake Michigan.—[Cleve. Herald.

The propeller Cuyahoga, Capt. Robt. of the People's line, is taking in her first cargo, at the Cleveland and Pittsburg Railroad Co. for Milwaukee and Chicago.—[ib.

[illegible]—We learn from Captain Dobbins that the schooner Anthony, from Oswego to the upper Lakes, is ashore at Point au Pelee. She had on 600 barrels of salt. Assistance is being rendered her, but with what prospects of saving her we did not learn.—[Buff. Rep.

LAUNCHED.—A new tug, built by Van Slyck, Hager & Co., for several Buffalo companies, was launched from their yard this forenoon. She is a very fine craft. She was christened the E. P. Dorr.—[Buff. Rep.

RAILROAD LANDS IN ILLINOIS FOR SALE.
240 acres in Will County, half a mile from Elwood, on the C. A. & St. Louis R. R.
1440 acres in Vermillion County, from 6 to 7½ miles from Gardiner, on the C. A. & St. Louis R. R.
1280 acres in Livingston County, from 5½ to 6 miles from Gardiner, on the C. A. and St. Louis R. R.
960 acres in Livingston County, 1½ miles from Dwight, on the C. A. and St. Louis R. R.
No better lands can be found any where than those designated above. The soil is two feet of black loam and one of yellow, both mixed with sand and small limestone, being an excellent wheat soil. Beneath these soils is a bed of clay of unknown thickness.
Nearly the whole of these lands are either gently undulating or high rolling prairie.
I will sell, in lots of not less than 160 acres, for either cash or on credit.
The undersigned may be seen for a few days, at the Tremont House, in Chicago; or letters addressed to him, at Odell Post office, Livingston County, Ill., will receive prompt attention.
As the lands are his own, no delay for reference to principals will occur in effecting a sale. J. HENRY.
